DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is a large but fairly plain frame house of two and one half stories. It has a hip roof that rises to a flat peak where the center chimney is located. There are hipped dormers on the front and sides of the house. Short pilasters flank each dormer window and there is a row of dentils above. There are three bays on the front. A one story porch used to extend across the front and around the east facade. It is now fully enclosed on the southeast corner and east facade. In front of the center door is a pedimented gable which extends beyond the porch and is supported by Doric columns, as is the porch. The porch has a plain ballustrade and a row of dentils around the cornice. The front door is flanked by sidelights and has a transom light above with tracery.
